

Tips to Enjoying AAHP

Please Dress Comfortably. Your attendance means more to us than your attire. Business Casual is more than acceptable to all our meetings and receptions. We will have many of our attendees dressed in beach casual as well. Please, attend our sessions, participate and be comfortable!

Find Jeannie and Mike O'Malley at the Opening Sponsors Reception. Our goal is for you to meet the people you came here to meet.

Find Joanne Chia and Jimmy Yi at the Opening Sponsors Reception. Joanne and Jimmy are two of the best examples of maximizing their experience at our conference and they would be more than happy to assist you in making this the best meeting you attend all year!

Don't forget your Welcome Gift. In your Welcome bag will be a special towel. This towel helps identify who is attending our meeting while you are at the pool area. Always have your towel with you and you will be easily identified as one of our guests.

Don't be afraid to join a group. At the pool, dinner, after dinner, it doesn't matter. Please do not be afraid to join the group. Many of our attendees break out after dinner for a little fellowship outside at Bucky's Lounge and others spend a little late-night time at the pool. Do not hesitate to join the group. If you can't find a group, call Mike or Jeannie and we will assist you.

Some of our attendees have been coming for decades. Don't be shy to ask how long someone has been attending the meeting. The longer they have been attending the more they know about what is happening and we can assure you, they will be honored to assist you.

Join AAHP as an Associate Member. Our organization is working diligently to improve the quality of healthcare and healthcare delivery in Alabama. We work with our Associate members to reach this goal. We may be successful without your company, but will be more successful working with your company! We appreciate our Associate members and their friendship to our organization.
